

FastSize Penis Extender on The View

Dr. Steven Lamm, a regular on ABC's The View, talks about "10 Things to Know About Your Penis," one of which is how the FastSize extender can help men.

On the show, Lamm says, "There's a device that helps extend the penis. It's called FastSize which can actually extend the penis."

You can See The View's feature on FastSize's Web site.
